Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 102(e) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by England (US.

6,144,991).

3. Regarding claim 1, England discloses a method of conducting an electronic conference (abstract), comprising:

providing a registration process (Col. 11, lines 20-34, the teaching of "Each client is a member of exactly one session ..." the term member inferred an inherency of registration process);

providing access to interactive program on the internet (abstract, Col. 5, lines 1-55);
polling participants, relaying geographic and professional information,; introducing experts (Col. 10, lines 35-52);

presenting main program (presenting problem question);
inviting interactive questions from participants and electronic communication to restructure the program (Col. 11, lines 34-50);

presenting conclusion, including introduction of follow-up implementation tool; and providing follow-up support for implementation of conference subject into business practices
